Child Care Assistance Program Information and Application Checklist

Who do I contact if I need help filling out the application or have questions? If you have questions or need assistance in completing your application, please contact your local child care assistance office based on the community where you reside. See listing on the third page of this program information and application checklist.

Is an interview required? Yes. An interview is required with the parent(s) of the family before it can be determined if you are eligible for assistance. Your interview may be in person or by telephone. Your application will be denied if you do not complete an interview.

How much can I make and still qualify? Financial eligibility is based on the total monthly gross income (earned and unearned) by family size. This also determines the family's contribution (co-pay). The most current income limits can be found on the Family Income and Contribution Schedule located on the Child Care Program Office website at: http://dhss.alaska.gov/dpa/Pages/ccare

Will I have to pay anything? Yes. You will have a monthly family contribution amount based on your income and family size. This is called a co-pay. The Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP) pays your provider directly based on the type of provider, age of the child(ren), and community in which services are provided. The Child Care Assistance Program Rate Schedule determines the amount the CCAP will pay your provider on your behalf, minus your co-pay. Your provider may also charge more than the CCAP pays. Each month you will have to pay your provider the co-pay amount and the difference, if any, between what the provider charges and what the CCAP pays. The most current Child Care Assistance Program Rate Schedule can be found on the Child Care Program Office website at: http://dhss.alaska.gov/dpa/Pages/ccare

Who is considered part of my family? The following descriptions of family are for Child Care Assistance Program purposes only:

- To be considered part of your family, all members must live in the same home, except:
 - If one parent of any of the children in common with you, is away from the family home due to participating in an eligible activity and the home is still their residence, they are part of your family;
 - o Married parents who are living apart are considered part of your family if the parent who is not living in the family home retains the home as their residence, or intends to return to the family home.
- Of the people living in your home, your family includes: yourself, your spouse and each of your children who are under 18 years of age.
- You may also have children living in your home who are not biologically yours. If you are their guardian and have financial responsibility for them, they are counted as part of your family.
- If you are not married, but the other parent of any of your children lives in your home, he or she and his or her children are considered part of your family.
- If you are not married but are living in the same home with another adult who has children of their own, and you have no children in common, he or she and his or her children are not considered part of your family. In this case each parent may apply to receive child care assistance for their own children.

Your Rights and Responsibilities

The following information is based on State Regulations 7 AAC 41 – Child Care Assistance Program. These regulations as well as the Child Care Assistance Program Policies and Procedures are available on the Child Care Program Office website at: http://dhss.alaska.gov/dpa/Pages/ccare.

Your Responsibilities

Applying families must provide complete, accurate, and current information and required verification regarding children, family income, hours of employment or training, work activities, and other factors that affect eligibility for program benefits. If requested, a family shall provide documentation to support information provided on the application.

When do benefits begin if I am determined eligible? If eligible, your certification period will begin the date your acceptable application was received by the child care assistance office, as long as all the required documentation is received within 30 days. Applications that are not legible, and/or do not include at least your name and signature on the Statement of Truth, Rights and Responsibilities and Authorization for Release of Information page will not be accepted or processed.

Which child care provider(s) can I use? Child care providers must also apply to participate in the Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP). A provider cannot receive State funding until they are approved or licensed. The Child Care Resource and Referral agency that serves your community can provide you with a list of participating providers in your area. Visit www.threadalaska.org for more information.

Participating families are required to:

- Select an eligible child care provider;
- Pay your child care provider each month, your monthly contribution (co-pay) AND the difference between what your provider charges and what the CCAP pays on your behalf as long as an authorization for care was issued for your Child Care Assistance family and care was used during the month, even if you did not sign a contract or agreement with your child care provider, regardless if your child is also authorized under a separate Child Care Assistance family;
- Renew your child care assistance participation by submitting a complete application and participating in an interview timely enough to provide for continuity of care and by the due date identified in your Child Care Assistance Renewal Notice;
- Review your provider's monthly request for payment to verify care was billed for the hours care was provided for your child(ren), if requested by the Department; and
- Report to local police and the Child Care Licensing Office, within 24 hours, abuse, harm, or serious risk of harm to a child in the provider's care.

Once I am determined eligible, what do I need to do to maintain my eligibility?

You must report the following to the child care assistance office within 10 business days before or after the change:

- In your contact information to include your physical or mailing address, or contact phone number(s);
- Before changing your child care provider. You must also give your child care provider written notice at least 10 business days before the last day of child care services with that provider, specifying the last date care is to be provided except:
 - o In the case of you or your child care provider's sudden program ineligibility;
 - o In the case of a licensing or law-enforcement investigation of a level 1 allegation of abuse, harm, or serious risk of harm to a child in the provider's care; or
 - o In the event of a death of a child;

o Upon written mutual agreement signed by the provider and yourself. If you fail to give the required 10 business day written notice to terminate services, care may not be covered with your new provider until after the required 10 business day notice timeframe and you will have to pay out of pocket for child care services used during the 10 business day notice timeframe, which is not reimbursable by the CCAP;

- Affecting the level of child care needed, if additional care is needed. Reporting this information late may result in you owing your provider directly for the additional care provided;
- After a non-temporary (more than 3 months) loss of employment, or ending attendance at a job training or educational program. Reporting a job loss more than 10 business days after it becomes a non-temporary situation may result in a determination of an overpayment after any applicable job search time is applied, depending on when the change is reported, in which you would be required to repay the CCAP;
- After an increase in income which causes the family's monthly countable income to exceed 85% of the Alaska State Median Income for your family size. Reporting this information after the required 10 business days following the change may result in a determination of an overpayment in which you would be required to repay the CCAP;
- After a change in your family size, such as adding the second parent, which causes the family's monthly countable income to exceed 85% of the Alaska State Median Income for your new family size. Reporting this information after the required 10 business days following the change may result in a determination of an overpayment in which you would be required to repay the CCAP.

Changes not reported within 10 business days before or after the change, will not be back dated, will impact the effective date your benefit can be changed, and may result in out of pocket payments that are not reimbursable by the CCAP, and may result in a determination of an overpayment of benefits in which you would be required to repay the CCAP.

Your Rights

You have the right to discuss any action taken on your application or case with your caseworker or with your caseworker's supervisor prior to requesting an administrative hearing. If the case worker or supervisor determines an error was made it will be corrected timely without the need for an administrative hearing.

Administrative Hearing Request

If you disagree with a decision made by the local child care assistance office to deny your application for program participation or to reduce, suspend or terminate benefits as a participating family, you may request a hearing by submitting the Request for Hearing form. A written request for a hearing may be made to the Division by you or your legal representative acting on your behalf. The request must be submitted in writing within 30 calendar days of the date of the decision with which you disagree. At the hearing you may represent yourself or be represented by a legal representative. You may contact the Alaska Legal Services Corporation at www.alsc-law.org to see if you may qualify for free legal advice and representation.

You may continue to receive CCAP benefits until a hearing decision is made, unless your application has been denied or your case closed. If your application has been denied or your case closed and you continue to need child care assistance, it is recommended you re-apply immediately in case the hearing decision is not in your favor. If you continue to receive benefits and the hearing decision is not in your favor you will be required to repay the benefits you received while you waited for the decision.

Civil Rights

Federal laws and regulations prohibit discrimination or the denial of participation on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, handicap or political beliefs in programs receiving federal financial assistance. To file a complaint of discrimination, write to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Director, Office for Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 1400 Independence Avenue SW, Washington, D.C. 20250 or call (800) 795-3272 (voice) or (202) 720-6382 (TDD). Or write to HHS Office for Civil Rights, 2201 Sixth Avenue – Mail Stop RX-11, Seattle, WA 98121 or call (800) 368-1019 (voice) or (800) 537-7697 (TDD).

Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

The Alaska Department of Health & Social Services and its grantees comply with Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. If you have questions, contact the Division's Americans with Disabilities Act Coordinator at (907) 465-3347.

Social Security Numbers

Social Security Numbers are not required for CCAP eligibility in accordance with 45 CFR 98.71(a)(13). Eligibility may not be denied due to the failure of the applicant to provide a Social Security Number.

Participation Requirements

To receive CCAP benefits, you must be participating in an eligible activity. In two-parent families both parents must be participating in an eligible activity, unless one or both parents is determined by a health care or mental health care professional to be incapacitated. Eligible activities include working, and participating in an education or training program with the intent of improving your employability.

Incorrect Payment of Program Benefits

If you receive an overpayment of Public Assistance benefits or receive services to which you are not entitled, you may be financially responsible for repaying the overpayment or cost of services to the State of Alaska. This may be true even if the overpayment or improper authorization of services is due to an error on the part of the Department of Health and Social Services or its Designee. By accepting payment of benefits or services, you must understand and agree that you may be responsible for the repayment of benefits or services to which you were not entitled.

Fraud Penalty Warnings - Intentional Program Violation

You may be prosecuted or otherwise penalized if you knowingly give false, incorrect or incomplete information to try to get CCAP benefits you are not eligible for, or to help someone else get benefits to which they are not eligible. If you are found to have committed an intentional program violation or are convicted of defrauding the CCAP, you may be subject to service limitations, benefit reduction, disqualification from program participation, and be obligated to repay any benefits attributable to the intentional program violation or fraudulent act(s), in addition to any applicable criminal penalties.

Penalties for Non-Compliance

Your participation in the CCAP may be suspended or terminated for any of the following reasons:

- Failing to report complete, accurate, and current information regarding family income and eligibility;
 or
- Providing false or misleading information or withholding information in order to receive benefits.

If the Department determines that there is reasonable evidence of an overpayment of program benefits, the Department may take corrective action including: establishment of a repayment plan; program suspension for up to 6 months; or termination from the Program.

Overpayment of benefits means program benefits received by a family in which the family was not entitled to or were received while the family was in non-compliance with a program requirement.
